

PRISCILLA LUND

Well-Being Counsellor
Career & Leadership Coach

PROFILE

Priscilla is a registered clinical Counsellor, skilled workplace coach and group facilitator. She has extensive experience focusing on the human element of organisational and leadership development, change management and change adoption. She has a wealth of knowledge and experience accumulated across a broad range of industries, working with a multitude of people from varying backgrounds, life-stages, and cultures.

Priscilla works with individuals and organisational groups to uncover and ignite mindset and behavioural flexibility for long term personal growth, wellbeing, change resilience and professional development. Priscilla achieves this by harnessing her corporate consulting experience combined with evidence based cognitive and behavioural theories such as Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT) and other behavioural and solution focused modalities.
